

What's on at The ClementJames Centre?

September 2020

Learning and Support Continues

Although the doors of The ClementJames Centre are closed, we are open online and over the phone for learning and support. We are constantly monitoring this situation. Please keep an eye out online for further updates.

Classes Resume This Month!

We are now enrolling for classes this September in Maths, English and ICT. If you're thinking of learning or improving these skills, please do not hesitate to get in touch! Email adultlearning@clementjames.org, call 020 7221 8810 or register on our website (www.clementjames.org).

Assessments will be via telephone or Zoom video chat!

Centre Reopening

The centre will be holding some services on site for young people from September. Most support, however, will remain online and over the phone. Please stay in touch using the contact details below.

Notting Hill Carnival

We've been celebrating past carnivals in the last two weeks on social media as we can't be there in person this year. Check out the many years of CJ at carnival on Twitter (@ClementJames), Instagram (@theclementjamescentre) and Facebook (www.facebook.com/theclementjamescentre)
