

What's on at The ClementJames Centre?

February 2021

Centre Closure

Due to the recent lockdown restrictions, we have closed The ClementJames Centre until at least March, subject to government guidance. If you would like to make an appointment for support with benefits, housing, education, employment or another issue, please find contact details below.

Reading Group

Reading Group is now on Zoom! We're now meeting every week on Wednesdays - just like we used to. If you like reading and discussing stories or poems, this is the group for you! All materials are provided.

Email wellbeing@clementjames.org to sign up.

Adult Learning Classes

With classes in maths, English, and ICT, enquire now to learn a new skill this year. We can help you learn, practise and improve your speaking, numeracy, and digital skills from beginner levels to level 2. Enrolment is every Thursday between 10 am and 12 pm.

Email adultlearning@clementjames.org or call 07857969806 to register and find out more.

Interview Skills Day

Online Interview Skills Day returns Thursday 4th February and there are still spaces for the morning slot! You'll get the chance to learn top interview tips and techniques from corporate volunteers. Email employment@clementjames.org

What is important to you?

This month, we're thinking about what's important to us. We'll be sharing submissions from across the ClementJames community on social media and we'd love to hear about what's important to you! Find the link to share yours at the bottom of this newsletter.
