

What's on at The ClementJames Centre? June 2022

As ever, our thoughts will be with the bereaved, survivors and wider community as we approach the 5 year anniversary of the Grenfell Tower fire. The Centre will be open as usual and anyone is welcome to come and reflect in our garden. Forever in our hearts.

NUTRITION & GARDENING COURSE

Join us at the centre for a three-week course exploring growing your own fresh food and preparing balanced meals.

When? Tuesday 7th, 21st & 28th June, 10 am - 12 pm. Spaces are limited. Email wellbeing@clementjames.org to enquire about availability.

The ClementJames Centre will be closed over the June bank holiday from Thursday 2nd June. We look forward to welcoming you back after the long weekend on Monday 6th June.

Did you know?

We run an ICT Drop-in every Wednesday from 2 pm until 4 pm.

Come along and use the computers independently at ClementJames!

Email reception@clementjames.org to find out more or call 020 7221 8810.

This Is Me: Revitalisation

Thank you to everyone who submitted a piece for This Is Me; the exhibition is now open and all of your wonderful artwork is available to view on our website! Submissions may be closed but if you're feeling inspired, why not get creative this weekend and explore what revitalisation means to you! Exhibition linked below.

Children & Young People's Advocacy for School Exclusions

Our Children & Young People's Advocate for School Exclusions offers specialist education-based support, advice and advocacy for children and families in North Kensington. This service is available to those who are experiencing school exclusion or who are at a high risk of exclusion.

Please contact Ella Graham at ella.graham@clementjames.org or on 020 7221 8810 to find out more. To directly refer to the service, please complete the form using the link below.
